

CLINICAL PROFILE

Veronica “Roni” Aten, PT, DPT

Veronica Aten has a passion for her profession that encompasses every aspect of her treatment style. From the moment a patient walks in the door Roni is fully engaged in making their rehabilitation an exceptional experience. While her background includes treating a myriad of orthopedic injuries she especially enjoys working with patients with neck injuries and headaches, post-surgical issues, older adults with balance deficits, and sports related injuries. In addition to hands-on patient care, Roni is furthering her clinical education in outpatient orthopedics and neurology. She is also focused on advancing her skill in the management of sports related injuries and post-surgical rehabilitation. Future goals for Roni include earning her LSVT BIG® certification for the treatment of Parkinson’s disease.

Education and Certifications

- Doctor of Physical Therapy
