POPULATIONS TREATED

My special area of interest is rehabilitating patients following complex traumatic injuries. I also enjoy working with a diverse population. One of the key aspects of my practice involves fabricating custom orthoses, ranging from simple to complex, to promote healing, immobilization to promote healing, and enhance my patients' daily function.

VISION

“As a Certified Hand Therapist, I'm dedicated to helping my patients achieve their maximum potential. I love collaborating with physicians, nurses, and the entire healthcare team to rehabilitate individuals, enabling them to return to their prior functional levels and enjoy their lives fully. I'm also passionate about mentoring new therapists and students, preparing them for future careers in hand therapy.”
