

ROTHMAN
ORTHOPAEDICS

HAND THERAPIST

Miranda Byron, MOT, OTR/L, CHT

Miranda Byron is a certified hand therapist who specializes in the rehabilitation of upper extremity injuries and conditions. With a background in occupational therapy, she focuses on post-surgical care, conservative management, custom splinting and personalized treatment plans to restore function and improve quality of life. Passionate about patient-centered care, Miranda works closely with individuals to help them regain comfort, confidence and independence in their daily lives.

Education

- Master of Occupational Therapy
Temple University - 2017
- Bachelor of Science in Rehabilitation Science
University of Pittsburgh – 2013

Services Offered

- Hand Therapy
- Orthotic Fabrication
- Manual Therapy Techniques
- IASTM
- Post-surgical Rehabilitation (tendon repairs, nerve injuries, fractures, etc.)
- Conservative management of conditions
- Edema management
- Scar management
- Wound care

Directions from the 4th floor to suite 210:

- Take the elevators to the 2nd floor.
- Exit onto 2nd floor, turn right.
- Make another right through the doors.
- Walk to the end of the hallway.
- Rothman Hand Therapy is the last door on the left – suite 210.