

CLINICAL PROFILE

Amanda Mikolajczyk, PT, DPT

Years of Clinical Experience: 2

Amanda Mikolajczyk is a valued member of the clinical team who is skilled in the treatment of a myriad of orthopedic conditions and sports related injuries. Her passion for her profession was sparked early-on in her anatomy and physiology classes which then led to a great experience at an undergrad internship that made her truly realize physical therapy was her calling. Amanda is a highly patient-focused professional who enjoys working with people and has notable success with post-surgical shoulder and knee patients. For Amanda it is all about her patients' quality of life. She is passionate about helping her patients to reveal their true capabilities, to overcome discouragement, and to achieve great things in their rehabilitation journey.
