

CLINICAL PROFILE

Margarita Munoz, PT, DPT

Years of Clinical Experience: 2

Margarita Munoz is a dedicated professional whose love for sports, movement and the sciences led her to pursue a career in physical therapy. As a life-long athlete, and now a doctor of physical therapy, Margarita strives to provide a holistic approach to fitness, rehabilitation and wellness. Her background includes working in a variety of settings from outpatient clinics to hospital and rehabilitation facilities that specialized in orthopedic, post-surgical, sports medicine, pediatric, and neurological patients. Margarita is passionate about hands-on rehabilitation, injury prevention/management, and proper body mechanics. She treats the full spectrum of injuries and conditions for all ages, and especially enjoys working with pediatric patients and athletes across the lifespan. A noteworthy success story for Margarita is that she educated, treated and facilitated pain-free movement of multiple collegiate and high school athletes in the Mercer County area and returned them back to playing the sports they love.

Education and Certifications

- Doctor of Physical Therapy
University of the Sciences - 2022
- Bachelor of Science – Exercise Physiology
Eastern Washington University - 2016

Margarita's Vision... I have a passion for physical therapy and treating patients in all walks of life. Whether their goal is walking independently or returning to competitive sports, I strive to help all my patients reach their goals and attain their highest level of function through compassionate, patient focused care.
